

WERQ: We've Been Doing This Our Whole Lives a Group Exhibition
June 8-30, 2019

NOGO Arts and the Brooklyn Art Cluster present a group exhibition with over 30 artists and 60 pieces exploring queer work and labor at the Cluster Gallery in Gowanus. Part celebration and part provocation, WERQ looks at how LGBTQ artists and art challenge notions of production effort, and work. NOGO Arts partnered with the Brooklyn Community Pride Center (BCPC) to promote the open call, and WERQ will have a special BCPC section of the show. WERQ will also feature a new mural by Brian Kenny, commissioned for the show.

Opening reception is on June 8th from 4-7pm in Gowanus - perfectly timed between Brooklyn Pride's street fair and the twilight parade later that evening.

WERQ runs from June 8-30.
